The New York Times (Republican) says: "The series of triumphs which have been achieved by the Unionist party since and including the Kentucky elections, in August last, is the most remarkable in the history of any Adminis ration."

Certainly they are, and the means by which these triump'ss were achieved are as remark. able as the triumphs themselves. Indeed, we don't see why, by the use of such means, the triumphs were not more signal. The vote ought to have been unanimous in all the States for the Administration.

This paragraph, however, shows either that the Unionist party in Kentucky do not understand themselves, or that they are not understood by other people. Certainly that is the case with the party about here. They would consider themselves slandered if called an Administration party. Most of their candidates expressed an uncompromising hostility to the policy of the Administration. They adopted an opposition platform. They modified it by a resolution to support the war, no matter what the Administration had done or might do, and this made a difference. Some people would think that, for all practical purposes, the rest of the platform-had as well been omitted; for, after all, this one resolution was the practical platform, and so the Times naturally understands it; but most of the people who voted the Unionist ticket didn's mean that exactly. They expected to put down the rebellion, and then correct the errors that may be committed in the meantime. They did not expect to be the victims of this policy at last. At the same time there was enough said and done by a large portion of the party of the Administration type that the rest of mankind placed the whole party on that side, and this does a part of them no injustice. Taking the whole aspect of the case together, it is not to be wondered at if some- Monday, had an important case before him with lilies, violets, hyacinths and narcissi body is cheated.

These Unionist friumphs in other States are Abolition triumphs, and the triumph in Kentucky in August last is placed on the list under the name Unionists.

The Times is not alone in claiming Kentucky in August last is placed on the list under the name Unionists.

There is not a tithe of those called Secosh that differ with the most important matter, rendered in strict accordance with the plain letter of the Conintense Unionist in that. There is, bowever, a wide-spread conviction in Kentucky that the object of the mass of these Unionists is election certain beyond a doubt. No better recommendation could be given for a judge not the Union at all, but something else; that the old Union is the object rather of tional rights and the laws.

A despotism may thus govern, if it has power enough; but there can be no freedom. Domestic slavery is not the trouble. Slavery didn't make the revolution of 1776; slavery did not start a revolution in Poland or in Hungary. It has made none of the revolutions in Mexico or South America. It is a For the credit of human nature, the Judge central power undertaking to control local independence. Against all such experiments radicals, no doubt, tried to beat him. He was the people of this State have been opposed. Our fathers never thought of giving such a power to the Federal Government. They knew that the stability of a government depended on State independence in domestic matters; that no free people would long tolerate anything else; that any power that up dertook to make a uniformity of local institutions over such a diversity of soil, climate and popular habits, would become a despotism or all into ruins.

The Federal Government now, in assuming to appibilate States and restoring them only on conditions that suit one section, are assum ing that a mejority can dictate the policy of all localities. The principle admits a power that can't exist in peace. It is to provide for revolutions indefinitely.

But our object was to notice this classifies tion of Kentucky victories in elections with the election of Broagh, Curtin & Co., and the defeat of Seymour and his party in New York. It is not of much consequence to us. The Unionists here and elsewhere can settle it their own way. We are a better Unionist than any of them-too good a one to keep such ompany. A man who is not for the old Union, but something else to suit his notion, is not a good enough Unionist for us.

We published a notice for the citizens to assemble at Masonic Temple to-day, to take into consideration the best means of furnishing a proper supply of fuel during the coming severe season for the poor. It is a subject the importance of which appeals to the heart of the philanthropist, and to which we do not doubt there will be a hearty response from the people. One, whose teachings all ought to follow, has said the poor will be with us always, and to guard and shelter them ought to be one of the first cares of the caused by the French invasion against the citizen. Roses a Luxury of the Ancients .- To en joy the scent of roses at meals, an abundance of rose leaves was shaken on the table, so that the dishes were completely surrounded. By an artificial contrivance, roses, during meals, descended on the guest from above.
Heliogabalus, in his folly, caused roses to be showered down upon the guests in such quantities that a number of them, being unable to extricate themselves, were sufficated in flowers. During meal times, they reclined upon consistency with they reclined upon cushions stuffed with rose leaves, or made a couch of the leaves themselves. The floor, too, was strewed with roses, and in this castom great luxury was displayed. Cicopatra, at an enor-mons expense, procured roses for a feast which she gave to Autony, had them laid two cubits thick on the floor of the banquet room, and then caused nets to be spread over the flowers, in order to render the footing elastic. Heliogabalus caused not only the banquet rooms, but also the colonades that led to them to be covered with roses, interspersed ome time ago, when he received the follow- and walked about upon the flowery platform.

> A HORRIBLE MURDER .- A most bloody and inhuman murder was committed in Clinton county, Ill, on Tuesday of last week, on the persons of Mrs. Henry Bond and her nephew a lad twelve years of age, by a young man who had formerly worked for Mr. Bond, and had recently been discharged. The horrid deed was committed with an axe. At last accounts the murderer had not been arrested.

The New Albany Ledger, of Thursday, has the following items:

ELOPEMENTS IN WASHINGTON COUNTY. The Salem Democrat states that Elisha Hamilton, a married man, forty-one years old, eloped with a young Miss Bowers last Satur-day week. The parties resided near Pekin, in that county. Hamilton procured a hunin that county. Hamilton procured a hun-dred dollars of Mr. Leonard Graves in rather a novel manner. He wrote his own name on a blank piece of paper, and got Jacob Rush to sign his name under it; then filled up the blank as a one hurdred dollar promissory note. Upon this he borrowed the money of Mr. Graves. Hamilton has a daughter married.

Another case of elopement, in the same county, was that of Joseph Harned, of Can-ton, who eloped with a Mrs. Riggins, of the same place, one night last week. Harned leaves a wife and family behind him. Mrs. Riggins leaves a husband and several little chaps to mourn her absence.

Court of Inquiry in the case of General Buell has acquitted that officer of all the charges brought against him. This result will be received with the utmost satisfaction by all wh are coguizant of the merits of the case. Especially west of the Alleghanies, where the character and military career of General Buell are more intimately known than in the cast, his acquittal will be halled with the liveliest satisfaction, as the vindication or justification—tardy though it be—of a much maligned General Buell had the misfortun to be one of the victims sacrificed to the nation's own inexperience of war. It is the same old story that appears so often in the histories of all democracies suddenly plungdinto war. Such men the Greeks exiled, an then raised monuments to their memory; such men Revolutionary France sent to the guillotine, and afterwards transferred their ashes to the Pantheon. We hope American history will never be blotted with such acts. It is hard enough to submit, as Gen. Buell has had to do, for more than a year, to public sushed to and malice, and the slings, and arrows picion and malice, and the slings and arrows of outrageous fortune. The revenges of time come round, however; a court of his peers ha leared him of every charge that ignorance or malice brought against him. We now sin-cerely trust that a field will be assigned to Gen. Buell where his great military talent wil

A NEGRO CUT.-Yesterday, between the hours of eleven and twelve o'clock, a free negro by the name of George Sanders was cut by Thomas Muldoon, a citizen of this place, under the following circumstances: It will be remembered that several months ago Sanders was arrested for having caused the death of a small son of Mr. Muldoon, in the lower part of the city, by beating the boy with his fist and kicking him. Sanders was indicted by the grand jury of the Circuit Court and yesterday his case was called in that court, which is now in session. Owing to the absence of witnesses the case was continued and Sanders required to give one thousand dollars bonds to answer at the next term of the court, which he gave, and was allowed to depart. Sanders, who was in the employ of Mr. Durrett, went to that gentleman's house, and an hour or two after he had left the court, he was driving the private carriage of Mr. Durrett. On Fourth street, between Market and Jeffer son, he stopped and got out of the carriage to let Mrs. Durrett out to go into the store of C. F. Rauchfuss. Just at this time Mr. Muldoon came along and, catching Sanders by the head, drew his knife and stabbed him in the right side of the neck, inflicting a wound about two inches in length, almost severing the jugular vein. The wound is a painful one but it will not prove fatal. Mr. Muldoon says that as he passed the negro made a face at him, which was the reason he cut him. Mr. Muldoon was arrested by officers McGuire and Horan and taken to jail. He waived an examination and gave bail in five hundred to answer the charge of felony at the next term of the court, and in two hundred and fifty dollars to keep the peace for six months.

WOOD'S THEATER .- This evening the cour teous and obliging treasurer of this establishment, Mr. Eddy Bauer, is a candidate for public favor by offering his name for a benefit. The entertainments for the occasion have been carefully selected, evidently with strong desire on his part to merit the patronage of his numerous friends in this city. That class of our community who feel disposed to make a desirable investment this evening are now offered a splendid opportunity of so doing. We know of no surer card for a theater than the announcement of Eddy's benefit. Independent of his ordinary claims, he presents an additional inducement in the way of attraction. GUERRILLAS IN MEADE, HARDIN AND BRECK-INRIDGE COUNTIES.—We have reliable inform ation, says the New Albany Ledger, of the presence of gangs of guerrilles in Meade, Hardin and Breckinridge counties, Ky., under the leadership of Champ Ferguson and other officers of Richardson's command. A party of about two hundred, under Champ Ferguson, have robbed many of the citizens and merchants in Big Spring and the surrounding country, and stolen many horses. In Breckinridge county they have perpetrated similar outrages, and it is reported that they declared their intention to tear up the track of the Louisville and Nashville railroad as they retreated toward Tennessee. These scoundrels have a regular rendezvous in Cumberland, Clinton and Monroe counties, and Burksville, Albany and Tompkinsville may be said to be virtually in their possession.

An admirer of the minstrel band now performing at Masonic Temple volunteers the following notice:

If you wish fun and laughter—if you want to hear good music and see as good dancing as was ever witnessed throughout all the East, take advantage of an hour or two this evening to visit Sprung, Smith & Chadduck's minstrels at Masonic Temple. The writer of this little notice has witnessed this splendid band in many of the Eastern cities in more than one periormance. Knowing that the people of Louisville are appreciative of fine talent, I can heartily recommend them to patronize the Hippozooncmadons.

WASHINGTON, November 5. The case of a widow of an officer or soldier him suddenly left without a dollar to buy mourning or pay for the transportation of her husband's remains is of shockingly frequent occurrence. The rejection of the widow's demand for this back pay, or that of her agent, is notoriously an event of daily occurrence at the War Department. the War Department. All applicants are turned off with the disheartening information that from fourteen to sixteen months must pass away from the time of making the appli-cation before the money can be got by their representatives.

Last night Mr. C. H. Smith, coal operator for the Yorktown Carbon Company, was mur dered in the most brutal manner in his house in the presence of his family by a gang of Irish outlaws, known as Buckshots. Mr. Smith was a loyal and highly respected gen-tleman, and was suspected of giving certain information to the Deputy Provost Marshal, by which the latter, with the military, was enbled to arrest the drafted men.

No Union man's life is safe in Yorktown.

PRCBABLE FATAL SHOOTING .- We learn by FINANCE AND TRADE private letter received from Campbellsville, Ky., that on the morning of November 3d. about 6 o'clock, as Mr. Carlisle, a young man of Green county, was riding with a friend in a buggy, he was met, six miles from Columbia, recently organized at Lebanon, ordered to stop, get out of his buggy and advance. He had hardly got out of his buggy when one of the party, whose name our informant did not learn, fired upon him, inflicting a wound which it is feared will prove fatal. After the firing the man who fired the shot was interro gated as to why he did so, and he replied that he was not "going to wait on a d-d rebel all day." Our informant states that young Carlisle convey information to our troops, and it is hoped that justice will be done in this case. Of late it has been too often the case that our new troops have been too hasty, and often fire upon persons when there is no necessity for it. The party who did the shooting will we understand, have an examination before court-martial.

AN IMPORTANT DECISION.-We mentioned several weeks ago, says the Nashville Disbrought suit in the Circuit Court of the United States at that place against the Planters' and Union Banks to compel them to redeem a certain amount of their notes ($3,600 of the Planters' and $8,400 of the Union, as we understood), which he had presented at their respective counters for that purpose. We understood at the time that Mr. Paul-was willing to receive greenbacks from the banks in redemption of their notes. The case was decided in the Circuit Court Thursday, and Mr. Paul obtained judgment with interest from the date of the demand for redemption.

in regard to the upper streams.

The river here has commenced swelling. In the 44 hours ending at 10 o'clock yesterday morning it rose 2½ inches, and was then 3 feet 7½ inches above low water mark in December, 1860.

There is 5½ feet in the channel out to Cairo, and 8 or 9 feet below the mouth of the Ohio.

For the condition of the Ohio river and its tributaries we refer to gleanings from exchanges.

The Hilinois river is rising slowly, with three feet in the channel from Peoria down.

The Upper Mississippi is rising from Keokuk down, with four feet in the channel. We have no late news from the river above the rapids.

The Missouri river is rising from Leavenworth down to the mouth, with three and a half feet in the channel.

Estray Notice. TAKEN UP. BY THE SUBSCRIBER LIV-ing on Bridge street, between Portland avenue and high street, in Louisville, on the 3d inst., a sorrel Horse, which the owner can have by proving property and paying charges. $25 Reward.

Taken from My Pasture, in Nell-son county, near Bardstown, Ky, on the night of the 9th of October, a large bright bay HORSE, near 16 hands high, bald face, right hind foot white, with a crease near the outside of soof, and some white hairs about the hoofs on some of his other feet, a scar on his right arm, and by observing closely, may be seen the prints of some of the stitches taken on it when it was first done—it is rather in front of the muscle. Said horse has a fine appearance and is rather teasy made. I will give the above reward for his delivery to me, or for such information as will lead to his recovery.

SIMPLICITY AND ECONOMY COMBINE

TISDEL & NASH'S Patent Attachment

FOR BURNING LOW KLUD LANDS.

PATENTED MARCH 24, 1863,

THIS IS AN ARTICLE WHICH, ON ACCOUNT OF ITS UTILITY, SIM a plielty and economy, has been very properly termed 'the best thing of the kind ever invented,' by the application of which to any commer fluid lamp, you can bern kerosene or Cool Oil, without smoke or small, while more light is obtained from a given quantity of Oil than with any other burner. With one of these burners applied to any fluid lamp it may be moved rapidly about, or even carried out of doors, without the light being extinguished.

WHAT THEY SAY OF IT. A Valuable Investion.—One of the best, and at the same time, most simple contrivances for burning Kerosene Oil in a common fluid lamp. It is so simple that any child can apply it, an it will burn Kerosene Oil in any fluid lamp without even changing the wicking. It is one of the neatest things that has come under our notice, and is destined to become very popular with a who use it. It burns the Oil perfectly, with no smoke, and will save many times its cost in a few months, and for portable or nigh lamps it appears to be the ns plus uitra.—[Syracuse Courier and Union.]

From the Scientific American.]

It accomplishes the object very perfectly, and dispenses with the annoyance and expense of the inconvenient chimmey. A free and steady I ght, without smoke, is obtained, when a good quality of oil is used. The invention consists in applying the metallo burner to the tube of the Lamp; the burner is simply slipped over this, and can be easily adjusted to any fluid lamp; thus equipped, coal oil can be burned in it as readily as fluid. The burner should be allowed to procet above the top of the tube a distance equal to the diameter of it, or about 3-16 of an inch; and the wings, compoing the attractment, must be separated, so as to allow the division to be just equal to the size of the tube. These lamps are very convenient for household purposes, as they can be carried in the hand in draughts or currents of air without being extinguished.

"It is a very slep'e contrivance, and entirely effectual, and has a rapid and extensive sate."—[Express.

Other journals speak in like terms, and the most flattering testimonials are being constantly received from agents and others as to their efficiency and economy; in fact they have carned for themselves a wide spread reputation The article never fails to commend itself to all who see it in operation,
